GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, DEPARTMENT OF COMMONWEALTH RELATIONS.

Announcement regarding 1946 Hajj Pilgrimage.

As the number of intending Hajj pilgrims this year also is most likely to be far in excess of shipping accommodation available for pilgrim traffic, the Government of India, in order to avoid congestion at the pilgrim ports and unnecessary expense to intending pilgrims, have decided in consultation with the Standing Committee on Pilgrimage to the Hejaz, the representatives of the Port Hajj Committees and the two shipping companies, that they should take over control of booking as they did last year.

Passages will be allotted according to the priority rules governing the allocation of passages on pilgrim ships. For this purpose a Hajj Booking Office has been set up at room No. 57, Council Chambers, New Delhi. Detailed instructions
